

PATENTVISTA[®] ENTERPRISE

PatentVista[®] Enterprise is designed for corporations with large patent holdings who use them to create and sustain a competitive advantage. It allows companies to securely and collaboratively structure, sort, search and survey their portfolio, increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of patent prosecution, licensing, acquisition and divestiture. Unlike home-grown solutions, PatentVista Enterprise is a collaborative and scalable solution that integrates patent information and associated documents into a single source.

Semiconductor Insights (SI) works with some of the most active patent licensing organizations in the world. Through PatentVista[®] Enterprise SI has helped clients to:

- Organize their large patent portfolios into easily searchable, multi-tier, custom taxonomies
- Review and rank their patents using their own or SI's proprietary metrics and methodology
- Centralize the company's collective patent knowledge and document collections into a single, easily searchable repository
- Find the best licensing candidates for a specific technology, product or target company

By leveraging the power of PatentVista[®] Enterprise, clients can more effectively manage their patent portfolio and associated knowledge.
